

Home » USCAP » Past Meetings

USCAP Companion Meeting, March 2007

Sunday, March 25, 2007 — 8:30 a.m.

Manchester Grand Hyatt and the San Diego Convention Center

San Diego, California

USCAP Ninety-Sixth Annual Meeting.

Differentiating the Undifferentiated and Poorly Differentiated Sarcomas: A Multidisciplinary Approach

 Handouts (pdf, 561kb)

Moderator: Josep Lloreta-Trull, Hospital del Mar, Pompeu Fabra University, Barcelona, Spain

Undifferentiated Sarcomas: What to Do? And, Does it Matter? - Christopher D.M. Fletcher, Brigham & Women's Hospital, Boston, MA

Recognizing Hidden Phenotypes in Sarcomas through the Electron Microscope - Marco Santucci, University of Florence Medical School, University Hospital Careggi, Firenze, Italy

Sarcoma Look-alikes: An Ultrastructural Approach - Guillermo A. Herrera, St. Louis University School of Medicine, St. Louis, MO

Contribution of Cytogenetics to the Management of Poorly Differentiated Sarcomas - Julia A. Bridge, Nebraska Health System, Omaha, NE

Molecular Profiling in the Diagnosis and Treatment of High Grade Sarcomas - Cristina Antonescu, Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, New York, NY